

Create a pharmacy ownership strategy aligned with your values.

Build a team you can depend on throughout your career

Our experienced advisors understand the complexities and implications of starting, buying and planning for the sale of your pharmacy. Strategic preparation helps you succeed at each step of your career and realize the full value of your lifetime's work when it's time to sell.

Our goal is to help you define what's best for you based on your ownership goals, experience and role as a healthcare provider in your community.

RxOwnership advisors can help you establish how you want to approach your pharmacy ownership strategy based on these considerations:

- Maximize the profitability and value of your business
- Grow and preserve the legacy of your community business
- Define your role during and after a transfer of ownership
- Find the right new owner for your business
- Ensure an independent pharmacy presence in your community and provide your patients with continuity of personalized care

Begin with the advantage of advice, powerful data and analysis.

Ask the right questions

- Is this a good time to buy or sell?
- How can I find a location that fits my goals?
- How can I expand my business?
- Are there buyers interested in my pharmacy?
- How can I prepare my pharmacy to maximize my return?
- How can I sell my pharmacy and maintain my legacy?
- Who can help with practical and legal logistics?

You can rely on RxOwnership advisors to be your confidential sounding board for planning your strategy. Make informed decisions by analyzing the competitive landscape and industry trends, evaluating your personal financial status, and talking with current independent pharmacy owners.

Our expert advisors can help you:

- Find physical properties, buyers and sellers in your desired location
- Understand your financial options and strategy
- Define your future personal interests and goals
- Evaluate local competition
